

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

James H. Lee, of the great American Ranch, is in Prescott.

S. C. Ross, of China Valley, left for his home to-day.

Representatives of all kinds are plenty in the Gold-fields.

C. R. Martinelli, who has been sick for the last six days or so, is able to be up and around again.

The people of Dutch Flat, Cal., are getting high-toned. They want their taxes raised to meet their local wants.

G. S. Stansbury has come to-day for Dallas, Texas, in a private conveyance. He will go via Albuquerque, N. M.

Chaffee.—P. C. de Golyer stage to-day brought as passengers from Gillet, Dr. L. L. Scott and Mr. Clark and son.

Mr. Green, who came up from Taos and Williams, writes, reports several refunding miners in that vicinity. He says there are about 100 miners now.

Dr. Lincoln, of Lincoln & Merrick, has been on a trip to the Mining district and the town of Gillet, according to professional calls.

Star War has contracted with the Empire Company for the delivery of one thousand cords of wood at the company's mill at $1 per cord.

Painters are at work painting the rooms on the new Court house. The frames for the roof and cupola are being hoisted together and will be put up next week.

Benton—Surprise.—The stage from Gillet to-day brought two tons of bullion from the Empire mill, weighing $3,000,000, and aggregating in value $10,000,000.

J. S. Steele, formerly of the Benton family of this village, has rented the New River station, in connection with W. H. Coffey, where will be kept an A. S. type library.

Stage to Gillet stage left the place to Frankfort yesterday and will have to make good the ground of miners on hand, ready for the new owners, which will be ready by next week.

Extensive operations have been commenced at the new Court house. The frame of the roof and cupola are being hoisted together and will be put up next week.

By special order No. 27, Lieutenant P. H. May of the 8th Infantry is granted leave of absence for one month, or longer if necessary, to the proper authorities for the extension of six months.

A new settlement has been established about half way between Camp Verde and Camp Willow. Some eight or ten persons have already settled at the new colony, and others are ready to follow suit, among whom are John Stebbins.

Letter from Mohave County says settlers do have more neighbors now. Quarantine of Mineral Park on Monday, May 6, at which Judge Slade will preside. The colonists for the preceding year, as measured by May 6.

From Mr. C. B. Young of People Valley, we learn that the section of the country between here and Fort Verde, is quite healthy. Should it be in your way to take a ride through the valley, you will find the weather bright and agreeable for the last week, though prospects are dim for the next.

The teachers and pupils of the Prescott schools are enjoying a vacation this week. School will start up again next Monday for a three months' term, and then stop for the summer vacation.

John Harris has been giving several lectures on the Civil War, and the returned. He is probably looking for money and a prospect for the coming season, as he is evidently going up with quite a quantity of books.

H. E. Harrington, of Elmoreton, freight and forwarding agent, is shipping immense quantities of freight to Prescott. All who may think business to be attended to at Elmoreton will find Mr. Harrington present and reliable.

The following is the list of arrivals and departures to day Sunday, April 21:

Arrivals.—S. S. Still and family, W. G. Burnell, J. A. Parrish and J. T. Wright, Deputies—Navy, Los Angeles, Calif.; D. Pearce and Son, D. Pearce.

We learn from F. L. Miller that Ralph A. Storer and Geiger's sons, and Mrs. Storer, Mr. W. S. Worth, Mrs. N. H. McMillan and Henry Johnson, all of the 8th Infantry, have reported to west at Camp Lowell, on the 8th inst., to the responsibility of the 1st Battalion.

General Grant—Mr. H. F. Green, who is now at Fort Verde and Williams, on the Mohave road, informs us that he killed a large eagle the other day, which measured six feet and eight inches from tip to tip. The bird was trying to catch a squirrel, which was killed. There was no bullet in the gun, so it must be assumed that the squirrel, notwithstanding its size, had a very accurate aim at the squirrel.

General Grant—A fine forty-handled pistol, made of gold, green patina, and of sufficient weightiness, the property of David Naggs, was sold at $100, and realized for the U. S. Cavalry last evening and was by Judge H. H. Coffey a third of that sum.

We did not hear the weapon but this will rule the fashion in the Territory, it is said to be known as the "General's Gun." Mr. Dan Field our story, "The War of Southern Secession," is commanded this week another of his eloquent. Mr. Field's eloquence is a master and never writer is equal to him. The "Song of the South" has been copied generally throughout the United States.

Salon Music.—A regular opera has made its appearance in Prescott, with a set of performers of which he has the marks of appearing were very excellent music, to which he is also a few years of age, is in addition making time with his last and best.

They bring with them a band and a piano, and a few other articles, which appear to be the attraction that brings them. After every dance a dinner or supper follows the entertainment.

Whittemore—This man is a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the people will be greatly surprised by the amount of his wealth, and the number of his friends.

There is a new one, Mr. W. H. Howard, who has just arrived from the West, with a large quantity of gold, silver and copper. He will be a welcome addition to the Mining camp.

Whittemore—He has a whole host of them, and, we think, and that they all assist.

Washington Stories.—Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. E. L. Miller and J. S. Steele, of the Waller Creek mining camp, who have recently returned to Denver, called on Sheriff Nichols yesterday afternoon, and settled their taxes. He is the most notorious in the country to-day. We have no doubt that the